Switch On Protein-Protein Interactions with iDimerize™ Systems

All critical processes of the cell are regulated by protein-protein interactions. iDimerize technology allows you to induce protein oligomerization and cellular localization, thereby controlling downstream events. The induction is extremely specific and occurs within seconds of adding a small molecule ligand. The iDimerize protocol has been used successfully and extensively to trigger signal transduction cascades, as well as a host of other biological pathways.

www.clontech.com/dimerize